THE INVOCATION
Psalm 139: 7-12

HYMN
Morning Has Broken Stevens/Farjeon

Morning has broken, like the first morning
Blackbird has spoken, like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for the, springing, fresh from the world!
Sweet the rain’s new fall, sunlit from heaven,
Like the first dewfall, on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness, of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness where his feet pass.
Mine is the sunlight! mine is the morning,
Born of the one light, Eden saw play!
Praise with elation, praise every morning,
God’s re-creation of the new day!

SINGING OF DARTMOUTH UNDYING
Dartmouth! There is no music for our singing
No words to bear the burden of our praise;
Yet how can we be silent and remember
The splendor and the fullness of her days?
Who can forget her soft September sunsets?
Who can forget those hours that passed like dreams?
The long cool shadows floating on the campus?
The drifting beauty where the twilight streams?

Who can forget her sharp and misty mornings,
The clanging bells, the crunch of feet on snow,
Her sparkling noons, the crowding into Commons,
The long white afternoons, the twilight glow?
See! By the light of many thousand sunsets,
Dartmouth Undying like a vision starts:
Dartmouth, the gleaming, dreaming walls of Dartmouth
Miraculously built in our hearts!

HYMN
O God, Our Help In Ages Past, St Anne

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

Time like an ever-rolling stream
Bears all its sons away.
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.
