Rollins Elected Alumni Council Rep

The results are official. John Rollins has been elected the Class of 1966 Alumni Council Representative for the next three years. Congratulations to John and many thanks to Jon Colby for his participation in the election.

Many classes appoint their reps, but the new tradition we have started of inviting nominees and conducting a class-wide election is demonstrating its value in both the openness of the process and the quality and commitment of our candidates.

Many thanks to our outgoing rep, Wayne LoCurto, for three years of outstanding service.

Larry Geiger
Class Secretary

Jon Colby has graciously accepted the position of Class Nominating Committee Chairman. He and his committee of Bill Higgins and Hector Motroni will nominate classmates for the positions of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer for the five years from our 45th reunion in October 2011 to our 50th in June 2016. The election will be held electronically and by fax and regular mail just prior to our 45th, and in person at the Class Meeting on October 16. The process is more fully explained in the following note from Jon:

Dear Classmate,

Chuck has asked me to chair the Class' Nominating Committee. Our task is to nominate a new slate of officers to manage class activities from our 45th to our 50th reunions. Bill Higgins and Hector Motroni have generously volunteered their time to help me complete this assignment. According to our Class Constitution, only the President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer are elected by the Class. All other positions (Webmaster, Mini-Reunion Chair, etc.) are appointed by the President.

Over the next several months, we will be reviewing potential candidates. A slate will be posted on the website on October 2, fourteen days prior to our Reunion Class meeting. Any classmate who is not nominated by our Committee can run if he obtains twenty-five signed petitions from the Class.

The election will be held on October 16 in Hanover. Any classmates unable to attend the meeting may vote via a ballot on the website or by faxing or mailing a ballot to me prior to the Reunion Class meeting.

Classmates interested in running for Prez, Veep, Scribe, or Accountant, or who would like us to consider a particular classmate, should contact me at jon@colby.net. If the Committee decides to nominate someone else, we will notify you in sufficient time to obtain the necessary signed petitions, if desired.

Thanks in advance for your input.

Regards,

Jon

Register Now for Our 45th Reunion: Early-Bird Discount EXTENDED Until July 14!

Dear Classmates:

Since several classmates have requested an extension of the original discount deadline so they could complete their plans, we are pushing it to JULY 14. Reunion details are being finalized and the list of classmates who plan to attend is expanding (see page 4) -- so now is the time to sign up. A list of activities, hotel arrangements and a registration form appear below and on page 10, and on our website at www.dartmouth66.org.

Reunion Schedule

Thursday, Oct. 13: The "unofficial" start date for those wishing to arrive early and take part in an optional Moosilauke trek, feed and overnight. Options include hiking, hiking and dinner at the Ravine Lodge, and hiking, dinner and overnight. Note: If you want to join the hike, you must be at the Ravine Lodge by 10:30 a.m. on 10/13; if you are just coming for dinner, etc., you should be there by 5:30 p.m.

Friday, Oct. 14: The "official" start of reunion. This will be "group night", when fraternities, clubs and long-time (or long-lost) friends wishing to do so can make their own arrangements to get together. For those not joining a group gathering, an informal dinner with '60's music and plenty of pizza, salad, dessert and complementary wine/beer will be held at Collis Common Ground.

Saturday, Oct. 15: After breakfast, we will meet at 9:30 a.m. in the new Filene Auditorium in Moore Hall to see and discuss classmate Howie Weiner's film "What Is Life About?" After lunch, it's back to Filene for a faculty/student panel discussion featuring our own Dean Seymour, the Class' guest of honor for the weekend. For the remainder of the afternoon, you can choose to take a campus architectural tour, a docent-led tour of the Hood Museum, or a tour of the Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center. Saturday night will be our official reunion cocktail reception and dinner at Dowd's Country Inn, with Dean Seymour as the keynote speaker.

Sunday, Oct. 16: The day starts with a memorial service (led by classmates Brad Laycock and Budge Gere) at Rollins Chapel, followed by the reunion photo and class meeting. At noon, we will go to the new Class of 1966 Lodge. We will regroup at 6:30 p.m. for a cocktail party and buffet dinner at the Dartmouth Skiway in Lyme. The Aires will kick off the evening, followed by the Strafford Blues Band. We hope to have President Jim Yong Kim as our keynote speaker.

EVENTS

The following update comes all the way from France from our Reunion Chair Jim Lustenader:

Affinity Group Mini-Reunions:

On Friday night of our 45th Reunion weekend, we are planning a special night for gatherings of fraternities, sports teams, clubs, or any other affinity groups that would like to have mini-reunions within our overall Class Reunion. A number of fraternities and the rowing teams are already planning such gatherings and your fraternity or other group can do the same. Organize a gathering at your House or a local Hanover area restaurant, share all those stories of what the many years have held for you, and learn about the many commonalities and differences with what your brothers, teammates, and classmates have experienced.

If you would like to organize such a gathering, your Reunion Committee can help you identify contact information for your group members (or you can check our personal Class Google Map!) and we can also help you identify Hanover area restaurants that might serve as good gathering places. Below is a sampling of Houses, Teams, and Coordinators who are planning get-togethers so far:

The heavyweight and lightweight crews will be meeting at the Boathouse at 3 PM Friday, October 14. Contact Don Ries at linda_ries@yahoo.com if you plan to row.

Theta Delta Chi - Coordinator Roger Brett - Gathering at a brother's farm in the local area, with kegs, wine, and good food!

Sigma Alpha Epsilon - Coordinator Bruce McKissock - Plans still developing.

Bones Gate - Coordinators John Rollins and Bob Serenbetz - Cocktail party at the House and dinner at the Norwich Inn.

Tabard - Coordinator Wayne LoCurto - 'Tails at the House and probably dinner somewhere too.

Kappa Kappa Kappa - Coordinator Paul Doscher - Cookout at his beautiful Vermont home and property.

Pi Lambda Phi - Coordinator Alan Rottenberg - Just back from Paris, but plans will soon develop.

Kappa Sigma - Coordinator Al Keiller - Stay tuned. Fun plans to be announced.

Tau Epsilon - Coordinator Richard Blacklow - Personal plans still in flux, but he will help get a House plan developed.

Gamma Delt - Coordinator Jeff Gilbert - Will be contacting brothers and developing a Friday night plan.

Psi Upsilon - Coordinator Dick Birnie - Cookout at the Psi U House

Phi Delt - Coordinator Albie Macdonald

As more coordinators are selected, information on other group gatherings will be forthcoming; check www.dartmouth66.org for news. If you do not hear from anyone, "show some gear" and volunteer to become a House or other Group Coordinator, and start making plans. Don't let your House or Group be left behind on these fun get-togethers. Contact Jim Lustenader at jimlustenader@aol.com and get the ball rolling."

News of Classmates

John Hargraves (pictured above with wife Nancy) writes, "I have translated The Druggist of Auschwitz by Dieter Schlesak, for Farrar Straus Giroux, and it is available now in bookstores and Amazon and at Holocaust memorial sites around the world. Given the very difficult nature of the text (both for the reader and the translator) it is inappropriate to hold a normal publishers' launch "party". I am hoping reviews will give you some idea of the book and perhaps encourage you to read it."

The Washington Independent Review of Books noted, "The core of the book is the author's arrangement of witness testimony and historical research about the 1963-1965 Frankfurt Auschwitz trial, with Victor Capesius as one of the defendants. Capesius, the chief pharmacist at Auschwitz, is the "druggist" of the title. Through Capesius and his comrades, Schlesak documents the Nazis' grotesque perversion of the Hippocratic Oath. The Druggist of Auschwitz makes an important contribution toward that end, with John Hargraves' translation communicating this raw material in a way that once again forces us to examine how ordinary people can descend to such terrifying depths.” John and Nancy plan to attend the 45th.

You will recall from the February issue of AR '66 that our own Jim Cason threw his hat in the ring for Mayor of Coral Gables, FL. Unbeknownst to most of us, Jim was the clear underdog in a three-man race...and still won!

“Frustrated with high property taxes, a costly dispute with the Biltmore Hotel, and the $197 million shortfall in the city’s pension fund,” noted the Miami Herald, “Coral Gables voters unseated longtime Mayor Donald Slesnick and elected retired career diplomat Jim Cason, known for his strong stance against Fidel Castro. Cason won with more than 39 percent of the vote to Slesnick’s 35 percent. Tom Korge ran third with about 27 percent.”

“It’s a miracle,” said Cason (at left during the swearing-in ceremony), who moved to Coral Gables in 2008 after spending 38 years with the U.S. State Department, including a stint as chief of the U.S. Interests Section in Havana. “I don’t think there has ever been a case of an American diplomat coming into a community and getting elected mayor after just two years. It’s been a wonderful experience, and I am in shock.”

“Slesnick, 67, the mayor since 2001, raised more than $193,000 for the race, substantially more than Korge’s $149,000 and Cason’s $97,560. Korge, a prominent Democratic fundraiser, has raised significant funds for both Bill and Hillary Clinton’s presidential races. Bill Clinton made recorded telephone calls to voters in the final days of the campaign, urging them to vote for Korge.”

Congratulations, Jim, on your upset victory!

Bill Higgins will be retiring from his investment management practice in Cincinnati on July 1. He will continue to attend bridge tournaments around the country (Bill is ranked 152nd in the country this year), spend time with his six grandchildren, and travel, including an August river cruise on the Volga with Jane and the Serenbetz’s.

“All is well on the Cape although hardly exciting,” wrote Tim O’Keefe recently. “We did have a great 10 day drive from north to south through California a few weeks back which broke up the winter a little. Spring, always the worst and shortest season here, has not yet arrived so it is just a matter of getting the boat launched and ready and hope things warm up enough to use it by June.” Tim will be attending the 45th in October.

“Cindy and I enjoyed a visit with Bob Brock recently while vacationing in Florida,” notes Dan Barnard. “I see Bob’s name on your ‘Classmates with no e-mail address’ list. Bob is retired, lives in Punta Gorda, FL and has spent the better part of the last year traveling the country by motorcycle and skiing with his two lovely daughters. His e-mail address is rbrock@comcast.net.” Thanks, Dan, for the update on Bob and providing his email address.

Prior to successfully throwing his hat into the ring for Class of 1966 rep to the Alumni Council, John Rollins had forwarded the following: “As you recall, my first retirement was in 2000, 30 years after founding Aztech Software. This time I’m retiring as CEO of StreamCenter, 7 years after founding it. We actually closed on the sale of the business on 11/15/10, but I had a 90-day transition before being completely free. (You may be interested to know that we were acquired by a national media firm headquartered in Charleston, SC.) StreamCenter’s business is on demand video streaming of continuing education content as required for professions such as doctors (CME), attorneys (CLE), accountants (CPE), engineers, etc.”

“I’m continuing my work at George Washington University here in DC where I am the Executive in Residence, teach Entrepreneurship, and serve as the Director of the annual Business Plan Competition. My goal is to have more free time to spend with my grandchildren and to travel. I have a grandson almost 3 and a granddaughter 3 months old who both live in Winchester, MA. I may have more in the future since my daughter in New York City just announced her engagement. Katie is planning an August wedding in New Hampshire's lovely White Mountains. Lots to enjoy!"

jrollins2@aol.com

Peter Dorsen writes, "My first 'commencement' address was given at the American Academy of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine, although I didn't get an honorary doctorate (I already have a real one). I raised the following points with the graduating audience:

1. LISTEN to your patients no matter how full or distracted your day or life might have been.
2. Treat people, NOT lab tests.
3. Observe their bodies and FEEL their spirits because, I must confess, Western medicine may have fallen short. Heed Ram Daas' message, 'Be Here Now!'
4. Concentrate on the present, certainly don't forget the past, and allow the future to unfold.
5. Search for communication between yourself and your referring massage therapist, homeopath, naturopath, or Western medical physician.
6. Let go of any defensiveness you may carry faced with the letter soup that seems to follow the names of so many of your sources of referral."

"Teaching ten hours a week at the school is putting me through my paces especially preparing and staying up on the material. I am trying to build my CD counseling which I fit in to the empty spots on my schedule. I still plan to do three cross country ski races next year (I did one last year: the 28 K Twin Cities Loppet). I will do the North American Birkie (a long one--over 55K) and the Mora Vasaloppet, a bit shorter but flat; and the TC Loppet again all in classic non-skating technique. I do not anticipate breaking a rib before any of these as I did last year - December 10th. it took almost a month to recover!"

pjdorsenproud@gmail.com

A few months ago, Bob Baldwin found out that Bill Roberts would not be able to travel to Hanover for our 45th because of medical reasons (and anyone who knows Bill also knows how much he loves reunions, football games and all things Dartmouth). As a result, Bob came up with the idea of having Bill's close friends from the class bring the reunion to him at his home in Georgetown, TX, just outside of Austin. So, with the collaboration of Bill's wife Paula, Bob, Ed Brown, Jim Byers, Larry Goss, John Galt and Jim Lustenader traveled to Austin on April 26 for a surprise two-day visit. Since Baldwin was already expected, the ruse was accomplished by having him arrive at the Roberts house first, followed shortly by a parade of the remaining amigos; Bill was totally caught off guard. The group (some of whom hadn't seen each other since graduation) immediately fell into sharing college war stories and catching up, a routine that was repeated over a wonderful dinner prepared by Paula and throughout the next day, when we toured Georgetown and sampled the local bar-b-q. Result: great memories and a pledge to do it again soon. My thanks to Jim Lustenader for this report.

At a ceremony on May 25 at the Manufacturers' Golf and Country Club in Fort Washington, PA, Harry Santangelo and his company, PMC Mechanical Contractors, were awarded the 2011 Upper Dublin Medal for Outstanding Business.

The story published in the Ambler Gazette notes, "The employees of the Ambler-based contracting company have lent their time and talents to the betterment of Upper Dublin Township during the past three decades, using their expertise to help improve many of the township's park and recreation amenities. Anyone who has ever played soccer at Mondauk Common, used the fields at the Camp Hill-Highland Athletic Complex or attended programming at the North Hills Community Center owes a debt of gratitude to PMC Mechanical Contractors Inc. Owner Harry Santangelo founded PMC in 1977, with the business operating out of his home on Bethlehem Pike in Ambler. 'We had a barn in the back of the house, and that's where we kept the tools and materials,' he said. PMC then found a permanent home in 1985."

"Over the years, PMC Mechanical Inc. and its owner Harry Santangelo have donated materials, services and labor valued at more than a quarter million dollars to make the Upper Dublin community a better place,' resident Bob Danaher wrote in his letter nominating PMC for the Upper Dublin Medal. Santangelo said he always has felt the desire to give back to the community in this way because of the important role of athletics. Through acquaintances, Santangelo became a coach for the Upper Dublin Soccer Club. When the league required new soccer goals, Santangelo was happy to oblige. Santangelo continued volunteering with the soccer club for more than 15 years, staying with the organization 'long after my kids had quit,' he said."

"Santangelo said he always has felt the desire to give back to the community in this way because of the important role of athletics. 'My father died when I was young; my mother was obviously a huge force in my life,' he said. 'Between my mother and athletics, that's what kept me on the straight and narrow. Sports has always been a very big part of my life. I believe athletics are a very important part of a kid's educational process. I enjoy working with kids and teaching them lessons athletics have to offer ... helping them find that they have the ability to accomplish what they never thought they could.'"

Harry, congratulations from all of us on your well-deserved honor. You make us all proud!

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE FUND

The Dartmouth College Fund officially ends on June 30. Head Agent Bob Spence has re-established a contest to tempt the procrastinators...and others who have already generously supported the College:

Calls for Coffee is definitely a welcome stimulant (and a way to reduce the risk of prostate cancer according to recent press releases). So is your coffee cup half empty or half full?

Well, if you will join classmates in the "66 Java Jive", you'll have the opportunity to fill your cup several times over. Support our 45th class effort with a contribution to this year's DCF campaign, guess the final percent participation out to one decimal, and you get a Starbuck's (or Dunkin Donuts, etc.) $50 gift certificate from me. Multiple winners will split that certificate, but regardless of the amount received, all will know that they helped fulfill our class effort to keep the cups of hope of Dartmouth's students full.

E-mail me your guesses at rmspence@msn.com. Your contributions can be made through www.dartmouthcollegefund.org/66Liana or call 800-228-1769.

Already made a contribution? Send me your guess, and thanks.

We are Dartmouth...

From 66th Night Chair Roger Brett: "Almost lost in the rush of 66th Night get-togethers was one that Brad Stein and his wife, Mary, had with Gerry Paul and his wife, Sherri. They had dinner at a nice Italian restaurant, Emilio's, in Harrison, NY, which is half way between their homes. Brad and Gerry are partners in their law firm, although Brad is now a retired partner. They talked about our upcoming 45th Reunion, world travel, Sherri's paintings (I think we need to hear more about this), and Mary's garden (and I want to hear more about that too), Gerry's cases, and Brad's sloth. We'll look forward to hearing more about all of this at the Reunion."

Last Chance to Pay 2011 Dues

Our class' fiscal year ends on June 30. As of June 1, $17,350 of the $18,000 dues income we planned in our budget has been received from 347 (48% of a 721 base) class members. If you have not yet paid, you can use the remittance form at the bottom of this page. A list of all paid-up classmates is listed at <http://dartmouth.org/classes/66/classdues.php>.

IN MEMORIAM

The Reverend J. Chandler "Chan" Newton of Center Sandwich, N.H. died Wednesday, May 11, 2011 at Tufts Medical Center in Boston. Excerpts from Chan's obituary in the Salem (MA) News follow:

"Chan was born in Salem, where he attended school and graduated in the class of 1962. He attended Dartmouth College and was a member of Kappa Kappa Kappa Fraternity. During his junior year, he spent a semester studying in Germany. He enrolled at Crane Theological Seminary at Tufts University and received a Master's of Divinity both from Crane and Boston University School of Divinity in 1969. He was ordained by the Unitarian-Universalist Church of the Larger Fellowship at Arlington Street Church, Boston."

"His first ministry was raising and caring for sixteen foster children at his Plowshares Farm in Raymond, N.H. During the time he lived in Raymond, he was Moderator of the Raymond School District. Chan trained to be an EMT for the Raymond Ambulance Service. He raised award-winning goats; many of them went to the Heifer Project and were shipped around the world. He also had a small lumber business with his son, Dewitt. He was presented the Medal of Honor by the "Union Leader" and "New Hampshire Sunday News" for an "Outstanding Act of Heroism" in 1992."

"Chan loved people of all ages, all backgrounds and all faiths. He had the ability to minister to a diverse group of people who were experiencing difficult situations in life. Chan became a mental health case worker at Hampstead State Hospital in Hampstead, N.H. and continued to do pastoral counseling, weddings, funerals, and baptisms for dozens of people in the wider community. He then became Hospice Chaplain at Seacoast Hospice in Exeter, N.H."

"He also worked with children and teens in the "Stepping Stones" and "Bridges" grief support programs there. In 1995, he went to work for the Manchester VNA Home Health and Hospice as the Spiritual Care Coordinator, and founded "Camp Phoenix", a summer camp for grieving children and their families. He was awarded "Chaplain of the Year" by the Manchester Counseling Center. He also worked as a hospital chaplain at the Elliot Hospital in Manchester. In 2006, he became Spiritual Care Director at Mary Immaculate Health Care in Lawrence, MA."

"Chan was very clever with words, and wrote many creative poems and stories. He had a passion for the environment and loved working in the woods. He was also a serious woodworker, creating many unique items for family and friends. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. One of his hobbies was collecting humorous and true life stories from people."

"Family members include his wife of 15 years, The Reverend Dr. Virginia (Trask) Jones Newton; his daughter, Heather Keymba and her husband Henry of Huntsville, Ala; a step-son, Troy Miller and his wife Julie of Harpers Ferry, W.V.; five foster children; five grandchildren."

"A memorial gathering took place on Saturday, May 28, at the Manchester (NH) Unitarian Universalist Church and a Memorial Service celebrating his life was held on Sunday, May 29. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Bereavement Programs, VNA of Manchester and Southern NH, 33 South Commercial St., Suite 401, Manchester, NH 03101, Attention Linda Krisch."

You can memorialize a classmate, and help Dartmouth and the Class at the same time, by giving to the "Dartmouth Class of 1966 Scholarship Fund". Send your check to Treasurer Jim Weiskopf at 13125 Willow Edge Ct, Clifton, VA 20124-1080, noting who you are memorializing, and you will receive a donation slip and a copy of the letter from Jim Lustenader, to be sent to the deceased's widow or other designated family member.

Dartmouth News

Dartmouth held its 2011 Commencement on June 12, awarding nine honorary degrees to, among others, George H.W. Bush and Conan O'Brien, the featured commencement speaker. Seventy-five members of the faculty protested the awarding of an honorary degree to former President Bush, in spite of, as President Kim cited in his remarks, the forty-first president's contributions to ending the cold war, signing the Clean Air Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act, negotiating the reunification of Germany and extending support to elected governments throughout Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union.

O'Brien set the right tone: "Before I begin, I must point out that behind me sits a highly admired President of the United States and decorated war hero while I, a cable television talk show host, have been chosen to stand here and impart wisdom. I pray I never witness a more damning example of what is wrong with America today!"
