April, 1982

It's tax time! Those of you who haven't gone on Social Security since the last Class Newsletter will probably be able to take advantage of these timely hints that the new Republican head of the IRS has just published:

- 1) If you talk about business after having sex with your wife, you can deduct the expenses for the evening (for those claiming office in home only) . . . Form 2106.
- 2) Effective immediately, if you open your curtains in the morning, then close them in the evening, you can claim the Solar Energy deduction . . . Form 5695.

If you filed early (who ever got term papers in early?), you can always bring the extra forms to your audit.

A DARTMOUTH QUIZ

What did the following Dartmouth professors have in common (besides being men)? Correct answers on the enclosed form, please. Awards to the two earliest submittals.

I have word from the man who graduated at the bottom of our Class . . . alphabetically, that is: KEN ZUHR. Writing from the Garlic Capital of the World, Gilroy, CA (7195 Harvard Place 95020), Ken advises that he has a sort of knee-jerk reaction to filling out forms (sent in both the Feb & Sept returns . . .). You're excused from this April, KEN. He and wife Ann have managed to put together a young family of girls: Beth (almost 3) and Kathryn Margaret (6 months). KEN is a Software Systems Trainer for National Information Systems, Inc. KEN, 'wrote' the language for the DEC 10 & 20 computers and still has to travel to customer sites for installation (I thought you were a trainer; better train some NIS people, KEN). As at Dartmouth, KEN still is a multi-media freak, "watching sports on the tube with a beer in one hand, book in another (?), and music on the radio/phonograph." Now, I have a neighbor like that but fortunately, after too many evenings in the basement of Kappa Sig, I'm hearing-impaired and it doesn't bother me . . .

Another Californian wrote in, JEFF STEIN. Living near the glitter capital and taste buds of America in Santa Monica, CA (1506 Idaho Ave 90403), JEFF returns the request of BILL WILSON (May '81) for information with the following:

"I am presently executive in charge of production (sometimes called VP) for Leisure Investment Company, an independent film company responsible (or irresponsible, Ed.) for such epics as 'Fade To Black,' 'Evilspeak' and, coming up: 'Beastmaster' and 'Over A Barrel.' Check your local listings. I got an M.A. in English Education, and another in Communications from Stanford University; I then spent the next 10 years making educational, industrial and informational films before edging my way into the feature business. All along the way, I've been writing, but with no economic success on that front. But, it is here that my aim is to prevail. Yes, I run, ski, backpack, and scuba . . . and keep dreaming. And my feelings and memory of Dartmouth seem to grow logarithmically every year; the wizened nostalgia of old me. I have some contact with ERIC KING and ROGER KLINE, and was a cohort of PIETER VAN DEN STEENHOVEN straight through from Dartmouth until he went down."

JEFF wonders what has happened to DAVE ANDERSON, DICK BATHERICK, BOB BRYANT AND BRUCE LAWDER. I heard that DAVE was working in Greenwich, CT, for a venture capital firm. If so, he appears to have gotten tired of not commuting, since he sent the college an address change to suite 659, 230 Park Ave., New York, NY 10017.

Who says Reaganomics isn't working? GARY BRYSON is back "at it" again, and so is JON COLBY (see, spelled your name right this time!). GARY has moved the whole family to Englewood, CO (5246 South Jamaica Way 80111 (say, that sounds like Boston)). He started his new job as VP Marketing at American Television and Communications Corporation on October 15th, so having no vacation time, he had to miss the Harvard game (it makes you wonder why people change jobs . . . after all . . .). AT&C is Time Inc's cable TV subsidiary. Time Inc. is a Division of RAMJAC . . . JON COLBY is now Marketing Manager for the Pumps Division of the Koehler Company. I ran into Jon in the Ambassador West Hotel in Chicago on March 15th, so I was able to get the good news. The not-so-good news is that JON is working in Sheboygan, Wisconsin; Ann and the kids are still in Oregon, and the distance is, I think, tough to abide . . .

RICH DELLAMORA wrote in to get on my case about not providing HENRI TACON's address in St. Louis . . .OK . . .OK. If you look at the back of this newsletter, you will find the addresses of ALL of our Classmates (excepting those who are running from the law, still playing Wales Tails in the dorm back in Hanover or have otherwise escaped the scrutiny of the IRS and the Dartmouth Alumni Fund). In the future, I will only list the addresses of those Classmates who have moved to escape our 2:00 AM telephone calls. RICH, by the way, is teaching (?) in the Department of Cultural Studies at Champlain College in Trent University in Canada.

I heard from DICK MEYER at Christmas. He's still down south in Houston, and probably with Exxon although he didn't say. My salient recollection of DICK is that he talked so incessantly during Bridge games that one could never remember how many trump remained out. Having not heard otherwise, I presume that he remains uncured of this vile trait . . . another Houstonian with no such traits is BOB BAIRD. We had lunch last summer while I was "on the trail," as it were. BOB is an attorney in Riyadh West. Wife Ann went to one of those local schools down there, Texas something-or-other. BOB says he can never remember (but Ann reminds him . . .).

JIM WEISKOPF wrote in. Or, that is, WEISKOPF, JAMES D., MAJOR, United States Army! After Dartmouth, JIM got a M.S. in Public Relations from American University in Washington, DC. He and wife Kamay, daughters Jennifer and Jill live in Fairfax, Virginia. Jim jogs daily, golfs and plans to retire in 1986 (I KNEW war was hell!) and embark on a second career and, presumably, a second income. Don't mind me, JIM, I just work for one of the geese that lays those eggs . . .

I notice that, courtesy of college address list changes, we have another probable retirement: NEIL DANBERG. The title appears to have changed from Capt. to Mr. . . the address from Judge Advocate Office, 1st Marine Brigade FMF, FPO San Francisco, to 314 S. 53rd Street in Omaha. I'm sure there's a story there. Drop a line, NEIL.

GRAEME BELL has been doing his best to keep the military-industrial complex going also. He's a partner with the law firm of Crowell & Moring in Washington, DC. GRAEME got this ticket punched at Harvard Law School; he now specializes in government contracts . . . buying those new $200,000 Jeeps and stuff. GRAEME lives with wife Claudia and dog Grace, in that order (unlike the old days?). He's happiest playing tennis and thinking about retirement (there it is, again . . . I guess the rest of us think more about affording retirement). GRAEME made an obscene suggestion for the College mascot/symbol, which suggestion he asked me not to reprint. Priapus would be proud, guy.

Some of us are not at the point of contemplating retirement. BOB HIRSCHFELD, who has finally finished his doctorate in Political Science at CUNY, is despairing of ever finding a job in his chosen field. BOB would like to hear from other classmates with similar problems, and those who have successfully made the transition from teaching to banking, finance, etc. If TOM LEAVITT, JIM HOFFMAN OR BILL WILSON ever get to New York, come on over to 131 Thompson St., or call BOB at 674-8325. BOB, I should mention, is doing his best to add to the flavor of the Big Apple by designing and silk-screening T-shirts in a successful (artistically, at least) venture called "To-A-Tee."

SCOTT CHEYNE, from Danvers, MA, wrote in. Although SCOTT got his M.S. in Communications from Syracuse University, has managed to "hang in there" with Caryl and daughter Christie (11), things haven't changed much since Chi Phi: SCOTT writes that, when he isn't working, he is happiest "having a beer with DICK SHEAFF."

When 1991 rolls around, SCOTT won't be working for world peace, he'll "be having a beer with DICK SHEAF." Classmates SCOTT sees from time to time: you guessed it Recommendation for college symbol/mascot: Right again, "DICK SHEAFF with a beer" "What on earth would SCOTT's analyst say about his lack of progress . . . as long as he can pay for the sessions, I suppose . . . ah, well.

There you go LANCE, more business! LANCE DODES is a psychiatrist, Director of the Appleton Treatment Center, McLean Hospital (Belmont, MA). He got his M.D. from Harvard and continues the association there as an Instructor in Psychiatry. LANCE also is a candidate in the Boston Psychoanalytic Society and Institute (you don't talk about us, do you?) The DODES family lives in Newton, includes wife Connie, Joshua (7) and Zachary (5). No fee for the CHEYNE referral, LANCE. Just let us know if he can be saved . . .

I have saved the emmits from New Hampshire for last. How about a house exchange program, fellas? Any time of year . . . you pay for the heating oil and I'll guarantee you more automobiles than you've ever seen in your life. Some mornings it goes so slow I could have been in Northampton . . . no matter. BILL MALCOLM lives on (I could scream!) Breeze Hill Farm in Lyme Center, NH with wife Mimi and children Elissa (5) and John (2). BILL is most proud of the balance he and Mimi have created between family life, professional/career goals and rural life style (and as far as I am concerned, he should be proud of that!).

STEVE JORDAN is living down in Sunapee, practicing (why is it lawyers and doctors use that word?) internal medicine with a small group in Newport. STEVE claims to keep the time/academic challenges of his profession from destroying the balance in his home life (there seems to be considerable effort at this balance thing, more later on this). He and Marianne have two daughters, Lauren (6½) and Hilary (4½). STEVE still plays the oboe, which he describes as the ill wind no one blows good! He also sculls during the 2 or 3 months the ice is off the lake and jogs when he has an ample supply of Cutter. STEVE would like to hear from JOHN ERKKILA (see 9/81 ed.) and WARREN RILEY who, I am told, has left his position with Coors Beer for parts unknown.

Finally, I have a letter here from CARL FIKE in Somersworth, NH. CARL and Gail are married and incorporated: Natural Resources, Inc. They got annoyed when fuel oil went to $.37 per gallon in 1974 or so (must be mad as hell now) and built their own solar home. They put up about 15 solar homes (retrofits, I think), and hope to have another 30-40 going in 1982. CARL hears from RICK LEE from time to time and would like to know where JOHN GARRISON is (check the list).

For those of you outside New England (and safe from those dangerous earthquakes . . .), here are some news items from the Daily D:

* Cost for oil and electricity in 1982 is estimated at $3.5 million (I wish those guys in Toppliff would close the windows).

* Tuition raised 14% for 1982. The full package is now $11,447!!!!

* The basketball team won the Ivy League (women's, that is).

* "Sonic Waters," a new musical group is reported to have put on a concert under water in Carl Michael pool . . .

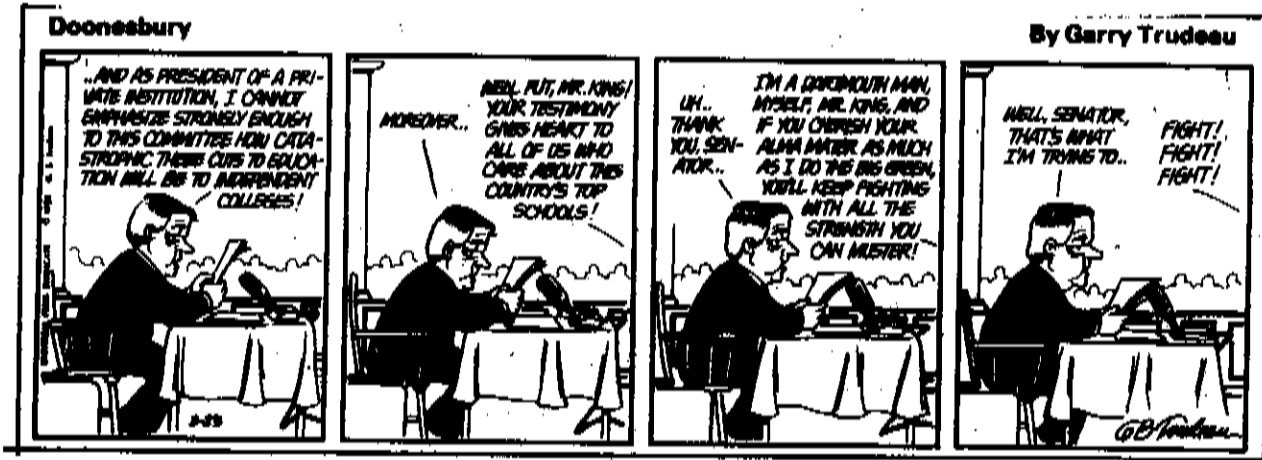

* An unknown group of Dartmouth women are in the process of applying for official college standing as a senior secret society, Phoenix.

* The college recovered from the 72nd Winter Carnival with little apparent damage (things have changed).

* Jim's Country Store, The Village Store and Beverage King of West Leb are all vying for College beer sales (I take it back, things haven't changed).

* The New York Times recently rated Dartmouth as both socially and academically outstanding, concluding that "No other school attracts students with the stamina to drink themselves into oblivion one day and partake in some of the best liberal arts schooling offered anywhere in the nation the next."

That's it. Drop a line.
