June, 1985

With the ropes to the tents being staked down as you read this, I hope that you have made your plans to get up to Hanover sometime on the 14th. Albie has a good one cooked up for all of us and I wouldn't want to miss it. We'll work out the cost of the plane tickets somehow, but Magoo and I plan to be there by noon Friday.

In case you never purchased a college songbook or one of Paul Zeller's records, I want to reprint for you one of my favorite songs from the book. Perhaps we can get the Dartmouth Aires to sing it for us during the weekend.

Softly now the early twilight Thro' the trees is stealing down, - And the evening hush is falling O'er the college and the town. Come and gather on the campus, Make the gray old maples ring - With the songs of Alma Mater, With the songs we love to sing.

For the dear old college home, boys, For the happy, happy days; For our glorious Alma Mater, Shake the campus with her praise.

Brothers, while the shadows deepen, While we stand here heart to heart, - Let us promise one another In the silence ere we part. We will make our lives successful, We will keep our hands from shame For the sake of dear old Dartmouth, And the honor of her name.
For the dear old college home, boys, For the happy, happy
Days; For our glorious Alma Mater, Shake the campus with her praise.
For our glorious Alma Mater, Shake the campus with her praise.

Be there! How could you miss your 20th.

Notes from classmates:

Joe Hafner wrote in from Houston (P.O. Box 2636 77001). He has a reunion conflict, the Rice Miller's Association Convention (can you believe it!!!). The meetings, Joe says, are in Maui (ah...well then). Tough work, but then...someone's got to do it. He is president of Riviana Foods, one of the largest rice companies in the world (i.e., Success, Mahatma and Carolina Rice) with subsidiaries in eight countries to help Joe build frequent flier bonus coupons. Joe's oldest son is going back to Hanover for a second stay in the Class of '89 (round of snaps for Michael Hafner!). Michael's other stay was in Mary Hitchcock where he was born eighteen years ago while dad was grinding it out at Tuck. Younger son Stephen is 16, trying to gain 20 pounds so he can make it on the football team. Not to worry...the puffed rice, brown rice, rice pudding and all the rice casseroles that Albie MacDonald has ordered for reunion meals are courtesy of Joe Hafner...it'll offset the beer...

Allen Keiswetter wrote in from North Yemen or wherever he has been lately (I can't remember if Rick MacMillan wrote about Allen because my wife throws all the magazines out before I've read them. I think she even tossed the September '85 Alumni Magazine already, send me another copy, Doug.). He's bringing his 5 and 3 year old daughters all the way from someplace in N.Y. that I can't even find in my 1971 Rand McNally. Allen is looking for Jim Cason, Dick Dellamora, Miles Hoffman, Bill Epstein, Lance Tapley and Laddy Jeffers at the tents. Al will tell us all about his 40th birthday safari in Kenya. I'm sure.

Bill Roberts (11 Royal Crest Drive, Randolph MA 02368) wrote in with some good memories of the sixties, including road-tripping to Lowell State with Bob Baldwin...the borrowed equipment from the chem lab used to make hard cider in the dorm...to be mixed with Seagram's 7. Bill can't remember what he did for his fortieth and, with hard cider and all, I can understand why...Bill plans to make the reunion trip a productive one, collaring Bob Baldwin (for free tax advice), Larry Goss (for free political advice), Ed Brown (legal and banking) and Walter Harrison (for the infirmities of the body that are creeping up so inexorably). Bring your checkbook, fella...the team doesn't travel for free.

T. Boone Pickens may have lost his "big" one, but Dean Spatz' Osmonics has gobbled up another key to growth, buying Aqua Media of Asia, Ltd. of Hong Kong. The acquisition should expand Osmonics' recent international marketing thrust and leave Dean with even less time for water skiing on Lake Minnetonka with Carol and the kids.

Note from David Anderson: "Jan and I had 4th boy, William Chapman, on March 6th. The crew now is David Jr., 6-1/2, Tyler 5, John 2-1/2 and William 1 mo. I am moving my office from Stamford to NYC (It won't work, Dave. It's going home in the evenings that causes these problems!). New office address is 485 Madison Avenue, as President of Independence Capital Corporation...Jan threw a surprise party (for my 40th) at a local restaurant. It was such a blow-out I had no time for depression. The hangover seemed to persist so long that I was well past 40 before I could think about it clearly."

I got a belated invitation the other day from Sudie Williams for Dan Williams' 40th. I don't know what was in store, and hope I hear about it in due time after Dan recovers. Since the ice must now be off the lake back in Buffalo where they now live (175 Middlesex Road 14216), I hope to make an harassing visit sometime in the summer (especially if you bail out on reunion, Dan). The Williams' two children (adolescents!) Danner and Jenny look like they are growing up fast...I wonder if Dan would dare expose them to the likes of the Beta class of '66.

"End Notes", as it were...from Peter Tuxen in Stockton, CA (2650 Westminster 95204), who writes that he and Margo just bought a (new) old house and are doing extensive renovation. The place is white painted brick with dark green shutters, and if it had a cupola on it, you'd swear you were on the Green. Peter offers this current bit of dangerous trivia for your edification: "Both the current and past presidents of the Northern California Society of Colon and Rectal Surgeons are from the Class of '66. I was and Yanek Chiu is! (Yanek lives in San Francisco and is on the editorial board of the Journal of Colon and Rectal Surgery).

Important Reunion Information:

Male Roles Seminar

Dave Johnston has agreed to conduct a seminar for members of Classes of '64, '65 and '66 and their wives. The subject will be CHANGING MEN'S ROLES: Coping with Personal, Professional and Parental Stress. This brings to mind a recent bumper sticker: MAN WAS THE FIRST DRAFT...When God made man, She was only joking. Well, a little improvement wouldn't do any of us harm (me particularly), so I am going to the seminar at 4:00P.M. Friday, June 14th.

I had dinner recently with Dave Johnston here in southern California. He is with a company called Intermatrix or somesuch, and is doing a major research project for United Way of southern California. Dave told me of his experiences at the University of Wisconsin after Dartmouth, and of coming up to Hanover to debate a leftist professor of economics in the early 70's (he won!). He works out of his house when not on the road (something I have been trying to convince my company I should be able to do).

Tennis Round Robin

Ted Amaral is arranging a tennis round robin for 10:00A.M. Saturday morning. Bring your racquets and whites. I'd rather be in the tent, but it's reunion and I have to give Robo Cleary his quintennial thrashing. Bring some Moosehead Ale for afterwards, Red Rider.

Haven't Registered?

Not to worry. Just give the college a call, send in the envelope or call Albie MacDonald or John Pearson. They'll find a few rooms for you and yours, and no, it won't be down in the Wigs...

Class Officers Selection

It is time to elect a new slate of officers for the Class of 1966. Steve Lanfer, who is stepping down from his position as Co-Head Class Agent, and I have agreed to serve as co-chairman of the nominating committee. We need your input. If we don't get it you will get to fulfill the classic definition (by Ambrose Bierce) of an "Elector, n. One who enjoys the sacred privilege of voting for the man of another man's choice."

We would like to have your input before June 14th, so give a call with your ideas.
